COMPLIMENT

Paid the Fourth Kentucky by a Pen That Has Often Sketched the Mountain Character.

The following high compliment is paid the Fourth Regiment by one who lives in the north end of town, and whose pen has often sketched the mountain character:

The Fourth Regiment, which left Loudon Park for Camp Hamilton on Tuesday, carried with it the approval and good will of the people in the neighborhood of whose homes Camp Corbin was located. This is perhaps the best compliment that could be paid it. By earnest endeavor this regiment won and deserved the approval of those who were at first disposed to criticise; an accomplishment requiring no little effort and determination.

Its career since coming to Lexington has been unique. When the raw material from which one of the best drilled regiments emerged first landed at Loudon Park, the mountain men had a look and a freedom of speech and act which went against them. Coming to a city whose customs were entirely new to them, they had the misfortune to gain, in the beginning, a bad name and a reputation for lawlessness. They were not as well clothed as the men of other regiments had been. They knew nothing about military discipline. They regarded their trip somewhat in the nature of a holiday, and a holiday they made of it.

That was the situation; but a marked change took place. These rough mountain men responded more fully to an appeal to their honor than others have done. They were told that the women of Lexington mistrusted them, and this aroused the chivalry of heart which is innate in the mountaineer. They set to work to eliminate first impressions, and how well they succeeded in their difficult task is proven by the general verdict as to order kept at Camp Corbin, and the respect shown to visitors.

It has been said that fewer arrests are made from the Fourth than from any regiment in the city. The men deserve great credit if this be so. They have proven themselves worthy to be made American soldiers by first conquering themselves.

Their neat appearance in the parade Monday testified to a pride and care of their guns and uniforms, and, altogether, Colonel Murray was right when he said with a shrewd twinkle in his eyes: "I think we have surprised Lexington people."—Lexington Herald.

A CRITICAL TIME

DURING THE BATTLE OF SANTIAGO.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhœa in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by J. T. Day.

FOR SALE—A bran new Alpine safe; a bran new buggy; two elegant and new sewing machines, one a Singer and the other an Eldredge. Annual Offerings for "Church Extension" and "Home Missions."

God has graciously spared us during another year, and has given us abundantly of his bounty; will we not now show our appreciation of his loving kindness by an increased offering for these two divisions of his work? Home Missions and Church Extension go hand in hand in the work of the Lord, and as we extend these so we hasten the coming of His kingdom in its fulness. Won't you make these offerings a matter of prayer and give as never before? The largeness of the work demands that we increase our offerings and make greater sacrifices. Now is the time to take America for Christ; take America for Him and we take the world for Him. Remember, He gave his life for us. He became poor that we might become rich. He sits "over against the treasury" and sees our gifts. May this grace of giving freely and liberally abound in us all for Christ's sake. Bring or send your offerings on the fourth Lord's Day in this month, September 25.

Very truly in His name,
WM. H. CORD,
Minister Christian Church.
Hazel Green, Ky., Sept. 15, '98.

Eastern Kentucky Sheriffs' League.

Sheriff H. H. Colyer, of Madison county, has evolved a plan to unite the sheriffs of all Eastern Kentucky in a league the main object of which is to run down horse thieves who are known to have an organized gang operating in the cordon of counties between the Cumberland and Kentucky rivers, and bring to justice escaped criminals who seek the mountain fastnesses of the eastern part of the State to escape capture. He has just addressed a circular letter to the sheriffs of fifty counties in Eastern Kentucky setting forth the mission of the organization, and the advantages of such united action, and expects a hearty response. Many of the leading sheriffs he has seen personally, and all pronounce it a great scheme. The order is to be known as the Eastern Kentucky Sheriffs' League, with headquarters in Richmond.

The manner in which will be exposed the crimes that the Hannaites have committed in the name of Patriotism, will annul the party loyalty of every Republican who is a lover of his country.

Tobacco cutting is going on rapidly. The weather for ripening has been the ideal kind. A great deal of the weed that looked at one time like it could not be cut before October 1 will be ready for the knife in a few days.

Mrs. S. M. Corbin, of Carroll county, received a letter from her son, Pres, stating that he is in Porto Rico with the Louisville Legion, under Col. Castleman. He says he is well, and the other boys are in excellent health, and had a delightful time going across the ocean.

In any civilization where you find vice in abundance, you will find the reign of gold supreme.

The administration's conduct of the war will go down in history crowned with "an immortality of infamy."

The military movements of our army are considered subordinate to the political designs of the Republican party.

The modern history of the Republican party can boast of nothing great except its crimes against the people's welfare.

While the war tax will draw millions from the people, it is forcing thousands of voters to the Democratic party.—Register.

Bond slavery for the masses is the shibboleth of the Republican party and the cabalistic insignia of its political philosophy.

Republican party patriotism has proven to be the semblance of a mith. The war tariff robs the people to make sure of campaign funds.

Isn't it about time for the "concern" which the President is said to feel over the army scandal to manifest itself in action?—Portland Courier.

The war is over but the war tax it appears, has come to stay. Its a good thing to help cover up the deficiency of the Dingly tariff bill.—Clinton.

The war bond will be with us as a perpetual reminder that this government loved the bondholders better than the people.—Benton Harbor Times.

The interested beneficiaries of the administration seek to clothe its head with piety for a shield, and arm it with the contortions of a subsidized press for a sword.

The application of pure Democracy to existing forms of government will be the demonstration of that philosophy we teach, but fail to practice, called "The Brotherhood of Man."

Just think what a lot of trouble, vexation and expense connected with these war taxes would have been saved if that Democratic income tax had not been defeated in the supreme court by one vote.

It is not the wealth of the country but the labor of the country that is paying the war tax. The Republican party has never yet framed a revenue measure that was calculated to tax the rich.—Ann Arbor Democrat.

Some Republicans are like the Chicago editorial writer who was ordered by his chief to write an article against the silverites and brought out two or three columns of abuse and mud-slinging. The chief called him upon the carpet and proceeded to read him a lecture, and began by saying: "See, here, what we want is argument, not abuse;" and the reply was: "D——n it, abuse is the only argument we've got."

Last Friday three men passing the residence of George Oldfield, on Lacy creek, fired their pistols, or pistol, in front of his house. He swore out a warrant for their arrest and placed it in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Pieratt, who arrested them and subsequently took them to Campton for trial. Mr. Oldfield being the only witness for the Commonwealth, the three men swore they had not fired a shot, had no pistol, etc. Jailer Combs had in his possession a pisto taken from one of the men, and a warrant for perjury was at once issued against them. On this they were tried Monday.

On account of the annual meeting in Morgan county, there will be no preaching on Sunday morning at the Christian church. The usual service will be held on Sunday evening, the topic of the sermon being, "At ease in Zion." Everybody is urged to be present. Remember the offerings for "Home Missions" and "Church Extension" are to be made on the fourth Sunday. Do not fail to be present on that day and make an offering as large as you can.

Mrs. Lou Day, who has been at Hot Springs, Ark., for the past six weeks, arrived home Tuesday evening, very much benefitted by the waters of that famous resort. She was accompanied home by Mrs. John A. Adams, of Lexington, who will be her guest and visit relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Adams formerly lived here, and this is her first visit since she took up her residence at Lexington, some ten years ago.

Elder H. D. Adams has just returned from Bath county, where he attended the annual meeting of the Christian church of the Morehead district, and reports a large attendance. There was 1080 members reported from the several churches of that district. The meeting was one of the best that he has had the privilege of attending. There were 16 preachers present during the session.

John Chaney, who developed Nancy Chaney, the little black pacing mare which was such a favorite with the people in attendance at our fair for several years, was here on Tuesday with a green pacing horse, and thinks it probable that he can be made faster than Nancy. Whether, however, he will enter him in any of the contests at the fair remains to be seen.

Floyd Bailey, who belongs to Prater's cavalry, will be mustered out on the 6th of October and in the meantime will come here and work for John Pieratt, the saddler. As soon as he gets out of the service he will set in permanently with Mr. Pieratt, and his many friends will be glad to welcome him back.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Godsey left Monday, after a pleasant visit to Hon. D. S. Godsey and wife, the former to resume his duties in the revenue department at Washington, and the latter to visit her aunt, Mrs. Brent Aiken, of Danville, after which she will rejoin her husband in the capital city.

Dave Linden, of Lacy Creek, one of the best known cattle traders in this section, last week sold J. Taylor Day 25 head of choice yearlings at $34 a head. Dave is not only a trader but a breeder as well, and is thus enabled to keep on hand an unusually handsome lot of young stock.

The fair at this place, beginning on October 11, promises to be one of the best exhibitions the association has yet given. Many letters from prominent horsemen of the State have been received, and some of them will be here with a good class of stock.

The telephone line between this place and Ezel will be in working order on or before the fair. The posts between Maytown and Ezel have all been set and those between Maytown and this place will be put up right away.

A Shattered Nervous System.

FINALLY HEART TROUBLE.

Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

MR. EDWARD HARDY, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co's. great store at Braceville, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick a day in my life until in 1890. I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure, the greatest blessing of my life."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

TRAINING AND FEED STABLES

I have opened my Training and Feed Stable, and will keep on hand plenty of feed and a full supply of vehicles and traps. Parties coming from a distance, who may desire horses pastured for a few days or weeks can have the best pasture at reasonable rates.

LIVERY STABLES.

Also, for the convenience and accommodation of guests of the Day House, at Hazel Green, and L Park Hotel at Torrent, I have opened nearby two first-class livery stables, where I will keep buggies, saddle horses and hacks for hire at all times. Persons wishing a vehicle to meet them at McCausey can telephone me and have any desired vehicle or saddle horse promptly.

I will also have a full supply of hacks for hire to drummers, which will be in charge of careful drivers, and for which they can contract by the day for any length of time.

Persons intending to visit Day and Swango Springs will be met at either McCausey or Torrent with team and driver, and I will have pleasure in shipping water for them whenever desired.

Day and Swango water, fresh and free, on ice and tap for guests at L Park Hotel.

The man-faced crabs which swarm in the inland seas of Japan are queer creatures. The body is only about an inch in length, but it is crowned with a head which has a face closely resembling that of a Chinese coolie.

A curious mode of catching turtle is practiced in the west Indies. It consists in attaching a ring and a line to the tail of a species of sucker fish, which is then thrown overboard, and immediately makes for the first turtle he can spy, to which he attaches himself very firmly by means of a sucking apparatus arranged on the top of his head. The fisherman then hauls both turtle and sucking fish in.
